Cumberland County Schools is hosting a session for eighth-grade students and their parents at Albritton Middle School on November 6th at 3:00 p.m. The session will provide information on E.E. Smith High School and the CCS Choice Schools that students may consider for their high school education. The goal of the CCS Choice Schools program is to establish and align clear career pathways and program options that promote choice and equip students to compete for evolving career opportunities.

The CCS Choice Schools application period for the 2025-2026 school year will be November 18, 2024-January 3, 2025.
